Diana "Dini" Cecil Pickering

Diana "Dini" Cecil Pickering is a member of the Olmsted 200 Honorary Committee and represents the fourth generation of the Vanderbilt family at Biltmore. Her great-grandfather, George Vanderbilt, commissioned the iconic Biltmore Estate in Asheville, North Carolina, with landscape architect Frederick Law Olmsted designing the grounds. Dini is dedicated to educating guests about Olmsted's landscape and legacy, particularly during the Olmsted 200 celebration. She has been actively involved in various events and initiatives to honor Olmsted's contributions.
